

ULTRACBG™

AN INDUSTRY GAME CHANGER

Available exclusively from Zilis, UltraCBG™ is a full spectrum, plant-based, water soluble hemp oil formulated with 60 times more CBG than UltraCell® CBD oil.

- + The next frontier in Endocannabinoid system health, especially digestive and circulatory health
- + CBG is the ultimate entourage compound
- + Flavored with exotic hibiscus flower extract

CBG is the parent compound for all cannabinoids, and UltraCBG enhances the “entourage effect” when working in tandem with UltraCell to offer targeted health benefits.

THE NEWS IS OUT

Zilis has solidified its position as the industry leader when it comes to hemp-derived products. First, by dominating the revolutionary CBD boom, and now by raising the stakes with Cannabigerol (CBG), the next generation of endocannabinoid health! Zilis is one of the only companies even considering alternate cannabinoids, like CBG and its unique health benefits. The future of hemp-derived cannabinoids is in Zilis hands!

EXCLUSIVE TECHNOLOGY

In rapid fashion, Zilis instantly became the undisputed market leader in ECS health. As such, we are committed to providing the best support and technology in the creation of our products. That's why UltraCBG is formulated with same proprietary UltraCell™ technology you have come to love and trust. Our ULTRA Product line works faster and longer because our formula allows for rapid absorption, so our bodies can absorb it quickly and efficiently for enhanced health benefits.
